So much they talk'd, ſo very little ſaid,
So wond'rous dull, and yet ſo wond'rous vain,
At once ſo willing, and unfit to reign,
That Reaſon ſwore.

Mr. Timothy,

AT the ſame time that I take the liberty to remind the public of their diſappointment, in having their attention drawn to the reading many indigeſted papers, profeſſedly written in ſupport of, but not confined to, the reſolutions; I muſt do YOU the juſtice to acknowledge the impartiality you have obſerved in your publications, though your ſentiments do not coincide with mine upon the queſtion.

Tired, as inquiſitive readers muſt be by poring upon a digreſſive author, hunting in vain after a juſt inference, and natural concluſion, it would certainly be of advantage to them, and not be ſo great an exerciſe of their patience, to introduce the academical method of the ſchools, by appointing a moderator in all diſputes. Cloſe reaſoning upon the matter to be debated, muſt then be adhered to, or the diſgrace of a deſcendas from the roſtrum would be incurred: Controverſies would have an end: And the man who ſhould barely aſſert, though with ever ſo much confidence, that his adverſary had not produced THE APPEARANCE of an argument, when his own impotent and unavailing attempts plainly diſcover his incapacity to give him an anſwer, would be laughed at, or at leaſt "treated with a ſilent contempt:" A ſtate, it ſeems, not inconſiſtent with popularity.

If I received any pleaſure in touching upon men's foibles, or the weakneſs and fallacy of their reaſoning, I could not indulge myſelf more than by ranging at large over Mr. Chriſtopher Gadſden's literary exhibitions. So many openings given, would, in a man leſs known, induce the ſuſpiciſion of a deſign to play booty, and betray the cauſe. He is, it is true, about it, Godde*ſ*s, and about: He has hammered long, and laboured hard at it; but he has not conſulted the quid valeant humeri: His talent does not lie that way; and, according to his moſt elegant phraſe, it is time he ſhould "be done." Yet ſo far am I from oppoſing, that I ſhould be glad to hear the chairman expatiating in a panegyrical oration upon his merits. Pliny made Trajan the ſubject of his eloquence; and what ſhould hinder Mr. Neufville from adding to his laurels, by celebrating Mr. G's fame?

The great public on both ſides the Atlantic, if Mr. G's and my jejune ſketches ſhall reach ſo far, are, or ſoon will be, poſſeſſed of what has been already urged; they will diſcern the diſpute, and the manner in which it has been handled; they will form their opinion; and they will pronounce their judgment. But favourable as it may be to the poor non-ſubſcribers, it cannot extinguiſh the feelings of thoſe injuries created by the illegal, oppreſſive reſolutions, and the newly declared gloſs of the TRUE INTENT AND MEANING THEREOF. Words we all know muſt be made uſe of to form arguments; but we all likewiſe know, that it is not every injudicious arrangement of them that is conducive to that end. At preſent therefore I will only tell Mr. G. what his heterogeneous compoſitions manifeſt him to be a ſtranger to, that idem eſt nihil dicere, & inſufficienter dicere.

W. WRAGG, Planter.

LONDON MAGAZINE.

THIS periodical Production, from its Commencement in the Year 1731, hath ever been held in the greateſt Eſtimation; and prefered, in the Opinion of the Judicious, to all the other Publications of the Kind. The preſent Proprietors, being Men of ample Fortunes, are reſolved to ſpare no Coſt to continue its Pre-eminence; and by their well-known Abilities, are capable, not only of collecting from their extenſive Correſpondence, ſuch Pieces of Literary Knowledge and Amuſement, as may beſt deſerve the Public's Notice, but alſo to produce of themſelves many original Ones; each taking upon him that Department which beſt ſuits his Genius.—The great Expence they are at in Copper-Plate Embelliſhments, can only be repaid by the great Numbers ſold, and this Particular may be deemed the beſt Proof of its ſuperior Merit. The Publiſher in London having engaged to ſend them conſtantly, by the firſt Ship after Publication, to NICHOLAS LANGFORD, Bookſeller, on the Bay, Gentlemen and Ladies, who chuſe to take them of him by the Year, will have an Advantage in ſubſcribing, to commence them at January 1770. The Critical Review will alſo be imported for any Gentleman who may be deſirous of having it with the Magazine.

N. B. NICHOLAS LANGFORD informs, that in a ſhort Time he will have to ſell by Auction, the major Part of a Gentleman's STUDY. Timely Notice will be given in this and the other Papers.

FREDERICK GRIMKE.

Who can read the following Account without being ſtruck with Horror?

LONDON, SEPTEMBER 25.

Extract of a letter from Vienna, dated Sept. 6.

"ON the 18th of Auguſt, about eight in the morning, the lightning fell, at Breſcia, upon a magazine, in which were about twelve thouſand rubbi of fine cannon powder, which was to have been ſent to Venice on the 5th of this month. This powder inſtantly took fire, and the exploſion was ſo great, that it overturned about a ſixth part of the houſes in the town, and according to the beſt information we have hitherto been able to receive, buried near 3000 perſons under their ruins. Belonging to the above magazine was a tower, built of large ſtones, which blew up at the ſame time, and falling like hail upon the churches, houſes, and other buildings, ſhattered them from the very roofs to the cellars. Several other fragments of ſtones, launched horizontally, unroofed the houſes, pierced the walls, and beat down the moſt ſolid buildings. One of thoſe fragments, driven by the violence of the ſhock to the diſtance of half a mile, there beat to pieces a houſe on which it fell, and buried five perſons under the ruins. In ſhort, there is not ſo much as one edifice which has not ſuffered more or leſs by this terrible event. All the ſtreets are covered with ruins of every ſort; and beſides the houſes beat down from top to bottom, upwards of 500 more threatening every moment to fall. The exploſion was ſo violent, that the ſtrongeſt faſtenings, at eighteen miles diſtance, were forced open: Some pieces of ſtone carried ten miles, and a cannon of twenty-five cwt. driven two miles and a half. The fields near the baſtion, on which the lightning fell, are entirely burnt up, and covered with the ruins of the houſes beat down, which were driven there, trees torn up by the roots and ſhattered, and with dead bodies. All the ſhops in the town were forced open by the violence of the ſhock, and many of the doors belonging to the houſes carried up into the air and ſhattered to pieces. In ſhort, through the whole city, not one ſquare of glaſs remains unbroken. The damage as yet is eſtimated at four millions of Phillippi's; and the government has appointed two thouſand men to clear away the ruins, and ſave, if poſſible, numbers of the unfortunate people, who lie almoſt entirely buried beneath them, making the air reſound with the moſt horrible cries."

Upon this occaſion, we are much obliged to a correſpondent, who has favoured us the following letter:

Mr. TIMOTHY,

CONSIDERING how often it happens, that powder magazines have been blown up by lightning, the inſenſibility of the inhabitants of Charles-Town, with reſpect to an accident of this ſort to ours, from the ſame cauſe, is truly amazing! And no where is ſuch a misfortune more likely to happen than here, conſidering the dreadful thunder guſts that are ſo frequent in this country.

It is owing to the good providence of God alone, that this town, together with its people, have not before this time been involved in one common ruin, by the gun-powder being ſet on fire by lightning, or ſome other cauſe: But as the like gracious protection, may not, perhaps, be always extended to us, does not prudence as well as policy require, that methods ſhould be taken to prevent a total loſs, I will not ſay of the inhabitants of Charles-Town alone, which muſt enſue, but alſo of the means of defence, ſhould an attack be made on us, which may be probably may be ſooner than we now expect.—It is well known when towns are bombarded, that powder magazines are particularly aimed at; and ſhould a ſhell fall on ours, a capitulation, for the whole country, muſt probably then enſue.

Many inſtances might be given of cities being deſtroyed by lightning blowing up powder magazines.—But the unhappy fate of the city of Breſcia in Italy, which in Auguſt laſt was overthrown, together with its people, by ſeveral thouſands of gunpowder, which was ſet on fire by the ſame cauſe, is enough to make us tremble, at the thoughts of that which may befal ourſelves! For if ſo ſmall a quantity as ſeveral thouſands of pounds (which appears no great quantity) of that inflammable matter, could in an inſtant deſtroy that devoted city, could any one perſon here, have the ſmalleſt chance to eſcape with life, ſhould the like calamity happen to this place? Our magazine ſeldom contains leſs than 40,000*lb.* of powder; which ſhould it be ſet on fire, muſt produce ſo dreadful an exploſion, that ſo far from any houſe, to a very conſiderable diſtance, being able to withſtand its force, it is more than probable, that the very ground on which the place now ſtands, might be ſo overturned, as never afterwards to be fit for having houſes built upon it—So that nothing more will be known to future ages of Charles-Town, than that ſuch a flouriſhing place once ſtood here!

I have as good an opinion as any man, of the efficacy of iron rods, in protecting our houſes againſt accidents from lightning: But ſtill, as we are not as yet thoroughly acquainted with all the properties of the electric fluid, theſe rods may not perhaps be an abſolute ſecurity againſt its irreſiſtable effects.—One thing is certain, that the horizontal bar which paſſes between the two upright rods, ſhould be raiſed to ſome diſtance above the weather-boards of the magazine, to prevent their taking fire, in caſe that bar ſhould be made red hot by an over-charge of lightning.—The ſooner therefore this is raiſed higher above the wood-work of the roof, the better, for no one can foreſee what may happen, or how ſoon it may be.

On the whole, a prudent concern, not only for the ſafety of Charles-Town, but alſo of the country in general, ſeems to make it neceſſary, that the powder ſhould be lodged at a greater diſtance from us; and likewiſe, that it ſhould be diſtributed in ſmaller quantities in different magazines, by which means a leſſer effect would enſue in caſe of an exploſion, and ſome might ſtill remain for our neceſſary defence, ſhould we be put to ſuch a trial.

Yours, &c. C. D.

CHARLES-TOWN, December 7.

LETTERS from Penſacola, by Capt. Woodſide, who arrived here laſt Monday, confirm the Accounts we had before received, that the Spaniſh General, O'Reily, who commands at New-Orleans, and has 3,500 regular Troops there, after having ordered every Engliſhman away from thence, with poſitive Orders never to appear there again, takes every poſſible Meaſure to prevent any Intercourſe or Correſpondence whatever, between them and that Place: But, that a Britiſh Sloop of War, lately ſent thither on a Survey, had nevertheleſs been admitted up the River, every Aſſiſtance readily given, and every Mark of Reſpect ſhewn, that could be expected.—That the General moſt aſſiduouſly cultivates the Friendſhip of the ſeveral Tribes of Indians within his Government; and, it is ſuſpected, encourages them to plunder and commit many Irregularities, in Order to oblige the Engliſh Inhabitants to deſert their Settlements about Lake Pont-Chartrain. That upon his firſt Arrival at La Balize, the French Inhabitants who had been concerned in the late Inſurrection there (refuſing Submiſſion to the Spaniſh Government, which they deteſt) were flattered with Expectations, that every Thing would be ſettled to their Satisfaction: But that in a very ſhort Time after, they were too fatally convinced of the contrary, by his cauſing fifteen of the Principals to be ſeized, and confined; amongſt whom were, Monſ. Villeri, who ſoon died, raving mad, on board a Spaniſh Frigate; Monſ. Foucault, Intendant, Judge Commiſſary, &c. who was ſent to France, probably to end his Life in the Baſtile; Monſ. La Freniere, Attorney-General; Monſ. Garie, Provincial Secretary, and Notary Public; Meſſieurs De Mazant, Marquis, Villaret, and Du Noyant, French Officers, and Knights of the Order of St. Louis; Monſ. Doucette, Attorney at Law; Meſſieurs De Careſſe, Petit, Bureau, Poupette, Millette, ſen. and jun. Merchants. That he had ſince ordered five of them to be ſhot, in the Room where they were confined; amongſt whom were La Freniere, Du Noyant, and De Careſſe, who, when offered to be blind-folded, refuſed, and faced their Death with a Roman Intrepidity: That five others were to ſuffer perpetual Impriſonment; and about thirty, of inferior Rank, had been whipped at the Halberds; and the Property of all confiſcated. That ſince theſe Severities had been exerciſed, the Reſt of the French Inhabitants had taken the Oaths of Allegiance to the King of Spain; but with a Hatred in their Hearts, to the Spaniſh Government, that can never be eradicated. That no French Proteſtant, of which there had been many, were allowed to remain in that Government, or to remove any of their Effects: That for want of a ſufficient Force to protect them in Weſt-Florida, inſtead of removing thither, they were obliged to incorporate themſelves with the Savages.—And, that the Deputies which were laſt Year ſent to France, to repreſent the Colony's Grievances, as ſoon as they landed, had been hurried to the Baſtile, and never heard of ſince; which was the Caſe of the whole Sovereign Council at St. Domingo, ſent to France by the Prince de Rohan. ——Bleſſed Effects of arbitrary Power!

WILLIAM WILLIAMSON, Eſq;

The Merchants of Boſton have, laſt Month, entered into a new Agreement, not to import any Goods (except ſuch Articles had been before excepted) till all the Revenue Acts are repealed.

By Capt. Whitehead, we are informed of the Loſs of a Snow from Jamaica, for Briſtol, on the 27th of September laſt, upon the Coaſt of Florida, one Lorraine, Maſter, who was arrived New-Providence, and had ſaved all the Cargo, conſiſting of 300 Hogſheads of Sugar.

On the 23th ult. His Excellency Governor Wentworth, of New-Hampſhire, was married to Mrs. Frances Atkinſon, Widow of the late Theodore Atkinſon, jun. Eſq; of Portſmouth.

On the 20th paſt died at New-York, in the 73d Year of his Age, the Hon. William Smith, Eſq; one of the Juſtices of the Supreme Court, and late one of His Majeſty's Council for that Province. He was born in England, and arrived there in the Year 1715. He practiſed the Law with great Reputation, and was eſteemed one of the moſt eminent in his Profeſſion. In the Year 1743, he was made one of His Majeſty's Council for that Province; which Office he afterwards reſigned: And in the Year 1763, one of the Judges of the Supreme Court. He was a Gentleman of great Erudition, and the moſt eloquent Speaker in that Province; of an amiable and examplary Life and Converſation, and a zealous and inflexible Friend to the Cauſe of Religion and Liberty. His Remains were decently intered in the Preſbyterian Meeting the ſame Evening.

We are informed, that Sir William Draper, Knt. with Capt. Collins, of the Navy, may be expected in the next Briſtol Ship, intending to begin their Tour of America here.

During the Courſe of laſt Month, 67 Sail of Veſſels have arrived at, and 29 ſailed out of, this Port.

Yeſterday Se'nnight Mr. John Brailsford, Merchant, was married to Miſs Polly Moncrief, Daughter of Mr. Richard Moncrief.

Thurſday laſt, being St. Andrew's Day, the tutelar Saint of Scotland, the Members of St. Andrew's Club, who are very numerous here, obſerved the ſame according to annual Cuſtom; had a grand Entertainment at Mr. Robert Dillon's, and choſe the following Officers for the enſuing Year, viz.

John Moultrie, Eſq; Preſident.
The Hon. John Burn, Vice-Preſident.
Mr. William Michie, Aſſiſtant.
David Deas, Eſq; Treaſurer.
Mr. James Briſbane, Secretary.

Laſt Thurſday Evening the Rev. George Whitefield landed, in good Health, from on board the Friendſhip, Capt. Ball. On Friday Afternoon, Sunday Morning, Tueſday Morning, and Yeſterday Afternoon, he preached in the Independent Meeting-Houſe, to very crowded Audiences; and To-morrow Morning he preaches again at the ſame Place.

Laſt Sunday the Sally, and the Harriot Tranſports, and on Tueſday the Mary, with His Majeſty's 21ſt Regiment on board, ſailed for Cork.

Laſt Monday died, much regretted, Whitmarſh Fuller, Eſq; of St. Andrew's Pariſh.

Yeſterday the Eagle Packet-Boat, commanded by Captain Jeremiah Beale, ſailed with His Majeſty's Mails for Falmouth.

Yeſterday Morning died, Mr. Elijah Prioleau.

The Printer of this Paper thinks it neceſſary to acquaint the Public, that he has not refuſed to give a Place therein, to the much-talk'd-of PETITION, that was preſented to the Hon. Commons Houſe of Aſſembly of this Province laſt Tueſday, and returned to the Petitioner.

New Advertiſements.

To be SOLD by public AUCTION,

On Wedneſday the Third of January next, if a fair day, and if not, on the firſt fair day following, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon preciſely, on the ſpot:

THE PLANTATION on Charles-Town Neck, formerly belonging to George Marſhal deceaſed, and at preſent unto the ſubſcriber, about three miles diſtant from the ſaid town, containing 150 acres of land (excluſive of marſh) as good in quality, as any in that neighbourhood: bounding northward on land of Sarah Bullard; eaſtward on the high road; ſouthward on land of William Bampfeild; and weſtward on Aſhley-River: about one half of which plantation is cleared, and the whole, as well as ſuch parts thereof, as have been cultivated, are encloſed by ditches, near ſix feet wide, and five feet deep, and ſubſtantial fences.

There is a commodious dwelling houſe thereon, containing ſix large rooms, beſides garrets, lathed and plaſtered, with a piazza, to the ſouthward, 64 feet long, and 10 feet wide, and another to the eaſtward, the ſame width, and 44 feet long; which has been lately new ſhingled, and completely repaired, and painted; and a kitchen and overſeer's houſe, united under one roof, juſt erected, at a conſiderable expence: alſo a plain, but profitable garden: and the buildings are placed in an airy, pleaſant, and healthy ſituation, on the ſummit of a hill, from whence the proſpect, up and down Aſhley-River, is both agreeable and extenſive.

The advantages to be derived from the employment of a few hands, on the above plantation, to attend and ſupply the Charles-Town market, are obvious; and thoſe advantages may be greatly improved, as there is a landing belonging thereto, adjacent to the houſe, and acceſſible to a boat of 80 barrels; whereby an opportunity will be afforded, to the planter of a ready communication, by water, with his plantation more remote, and facilitate the conveyance of ſtock, &c. from one, to the other: and alſo another landing, and an eminence, on the ſouth weſt end of the tract, fronting the river, which, with the particular ſituation of the wood and cleared land, render the above plantation capable of diviſion, into two equal parts.

ALSO,

At the ſame time and place, will be ſold,

ABOUT TWENTY YOUNG VALUABLE SLAVES, among whom are three mowers; a complete ploughman; a tolerable good butcher, ſawyer and ſquarer, who has been alſo employed four years at the buſineſs of a ſhipwright; a good boatman, who is well acquainted with the rivers to the Southward, as far as Savannah, in Georgia, and has a pretty good notion of gardening: in the purchaſe of which ſlaves the utmoſt care and attention have been ſhewn to their characters, in point of honeſty and ſobriety, as well as ability.

ALSO,

THIRTEEN HEAD OF CATTLE, among which are 10 cows, one whereof a remarkable fine one, that has been ſeveral Years uſed to the town: a flock of ſheep, lately imported from the northward; and hogs: a chaiſe not much the worſe for wear; ſeveral good chair-horſes: a ſmall ſprightly riding horſe, ſuitable for a boy of 10 or 12 years of age: a light, handy, new cart: cart-horſes; and a variety of plantation tools and utenſils, that have been little uſed.

The purchaſer or purchaſers of any part of the premiſes, to the amount of 1000l. and upwards, may have one, two, or more years credit, paying intereſt, and giving approved ſecurity, if required: and if under 1000l. yet exceeding 100l. credit will be given to the 1ſt of March next, paying intereſt, and giving ſecurity, as above: but for all ſums under 100l. or to that amount, the caſh will be required: and until theſe conditions are complied with and fulfilled, the property of nothing is to be altered.

SUPPLEMENT to the South-Carolina Gazette, No. 1768.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1769.

NEWBERN (North-Carolina) OCTOBER 27.

ON Monday laſt, the general aſſembly of this province met here; and the members of the houſe of aſſembly having qualified themſelves, by taking the oaths of government, and ſubſcribing the teſt, waited upon his Excellency the Governor in the Council Chamber, when his Excellency directed them to return to their houſe, and make choice of a Speaker. The houſe accordingly returned, and unanimouſly choſe Colonel John Harvey, their late Speaker, who was conducted to the chair accordingly. The houſe then again waited on his Excellency in the Council Chamber, and preſented their Spaker; which choice his Excellency was pleaſed to approve of, and opened the ſeſſion with the following ſpeech.

Gentlemen of his Majeſty's honourable Council,
Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Aſſembly,

IT is with much ſatisfaction I meet this new Aſſembly; as the freeholders through the province, have had a late opportunity of returning ſuch repreſentatives as they thought beſt qualified to ſerve their country, and of teſtifying their approbation of the public conduct of thoſe gentlemen whom they have again choſe to repreſent them.

I have the pleaſure to acquaint you, his Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to leave the regulation of Indian affairs to the colonies, whoſe legiſlatures muſt be the beſt judges of what their ſeveral ſituations and circumſtances may require: That the office of Superintendents, however, will be continued, for ſuch matters as are of immediate negociation between the Crown and the tribes of Indians, and cannot conſequently be regulated by legiſlative authority.

As it is not in his Majeſty's power to diſpenſe with the act of Parliament, reſpecting the legal tender of Paper Currency in the colonies, no petition, that prays for an emiſſion of Paper Currency as a legal tender, can meet with the ſucceſs you wiſh: It is not, I am aſſured, however, intended that this intimation ſhould, nor will it, preclude the fulleſt conſideration that can be given to any repreſentation this aſſembly ſhall make on that ſubject, or any plan you can ſuggeſt for that purpoſe.

As the affairs of this province muſt, in ſome degree, neceſſarily ſuffer delay for want of a regular Agent at home, duly authorized to act in every caſe in which the intereſt of the colony may be concerned, I am to acquaint you, I have his Majeſty's royal permiſſion to aſſent to a law, for raiſing ſuch a ſum as ſhall be neceſſary for ſupporting that eſtabliſhment; provided the Agent be appointed by a law of Governor, Council, and Aſſembly, ſpecially paſſed for that appointment: Which law, as it originates in the houſe of aſſembly, it follows of courſe, that the name of the perſon muſt be inſerted by that houſe, although the other two branches of the legiſlature have each, reſpectively, a negative upon the bill.

Among ſeveral acts paſſed laſt ſeſſion of parliament, relating, and beneficial, to the Britiſh colonies, there is one for the encouragement of the culture of raw ſilk in America. This encouragement is ſo very conſiderable, and the object of it ſo intereſting both to Great-Britain, and the Southern colonies of America, that I do, in the ſtrongeſt manner, recommend to you, to purſue ſuch meaſures, by premiums, or otherwiſe, as may induce the inhabitants of this country to enter, with ſpirit and expedition, upon ſo uſeful and profitable a cultivation. Permit me here to obſerve to you, that the attention of his Majeſty, and his Parliament, to give every poſſible encouragement to the productions of the colonies, though at a conſiderable expence to Great-Britain, cannot but give the moſt pleaſing reflections to his Majeſty's ſubjects in America, and be productive of general benefit both to the mother country and her colonies.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Aſſembly,

The diſappointment I met with in the two laſt Seſſions of Aſſembly, oblige me to renew my application for a proviſion of powder and lead, for his Majeſty's ſervice, and the defence of this government. This object is ſo very important to this country, eſpecially to its maritime counties, that I eſteem it incumbent on me, for the honour and ſecurity of the province, to recommend to you to make the neceſſary proviſion of theſe articles; particularly, as the ſmall quantity of powder remaining in his Majeſty's magazine, is reported to me as unfit for public ſervice.

Your public funds demand a ſtricter examination than they have ever fallen under, ſince the eſtabliſhment of the colony. The credit and conſideration of this province is growing up with the increaſe of its inhabitants, and it is become of the utmoſt conſequence, that a ſettlement of the public accounts ſhould be forthwith obtained, that a general ſtate of them might be made known to the country. As I had an opportunity this ſummer to procure information into the manner of keeping public accounts in a neighbouring colony, I purpoſe, in the courſe of this ſeſſion, to lay before you, for your deliberation, ſome obſervations and regulations on this head, which I wiſh may aſſiſt to diſpel that cloud, which has ever obſcured the public accounts of this province: The community will then chearfully pay the public levies, ſatisfied that they are fairly adjuſted and applied to the ſervices intended.

It will be an object too, worthy your ſtrict enquiry, how far the laws paſſed for the emiſſion of paper currency, have had their effect, and in whoſe hands the ſums raiſed to ſink thoſe emiſſions, remain.

Honourable Gentlemen, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Aſſembly,

The weighty concerns that will fall under your conſideration this ſeſſion, require all poſſible temper and moderation in the conduct of them. I have the happineſs to hope, the intelligence I have lately received from home, will be very inſtrumental in preventing any interruption to the diſpatch of public buſineſs. I am authorized to inform you, notwithſtanding any inſinuations to the contrary, that his Majeſty's preſent adminiſtration have, at no time, entertained a deſign to propoſe to Parliament to lay any further taxes upon America, for the purpoſe of raiſing a revenue; and that it is their intention to propoſe, in the next ſeſſion of parliament to take off the duties upon glaſs, paper, and colours, upon conſideration of ſuch duties having been laid contrary to the true trinciples of commerce. Theſe, I am aſſured, have always been, and ſtill are, the ſentiments of his Majeſty's preſent miniſters, and the principles by which their conduct, in reſpect to America, has been governed. I therefore rely on your prudence and candour, that you will give full credit to the late teſtimonies his Majeſty and his Parliament have afforded, of their attention and affection to the colonies, and this explanation of the meaſures of his Majeſty's ſervants. Such a confidence on your part, will tend to remove thoſe prejudices which have been excited by the miſrepreſentations of thoſe who are jealous of the proſperity of Great-Britain and her colonies, and re-eſtabliſh that cordiality and affection, upon which the glory and ſafety of the Britiſh empire depend.

I ſhall conclude, with calling to your reflection, a ſcene the moſt melancholly and affecting to this country; the calamities ariſing from the extreme violence of the late ſtorm, which has been too deſtructive to have failed to excite, in every human breaſt, a ſenſible compaſſion and ſympathy for the unfortunate ſufferers. The misfortunes of this town in particular, have not been confined to the heavy loſs of the individual ſufferers, ſince, by the deſtruction of its banks, formed by nature on the ſide of the two rivers, and formerly thought a ſufficient bulwark, the trading part of the town lies open and expoſed to the ravages of every high wind and tide; which can only be prevented, for the future, at an expence the town, under its preſent ruinous condition, may not be able to defray. It will therefore give me great pleaſure, if you, gentlemen, ſhall think with me, that the public utility requires aſſiſtance to be given by the legiſlature for that purpoſe, to one of the moſt conſiderable ports of the province.

To His Excellency WILLIAM TRYON, Eſquire, Captain-General, Governor, and Commander in Chief, in and over His Majeſty's Province of NORTH-CAROLINA.

The ADDRESS of the ASSEMBLY of the ſaid Province.

SIR,

WE, his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the members of the Aſſembly of North-Carolina, return your Excellency our ſincere thanks, for your Speech at the opening of this ſeſſion, and beg leave to congratulate your Excellency, on your happy return from Virginia to your government.

The information your Excellency has given us, that no petition to his Majeſty from the colonies, praying an emiſſion of Paper Currency as a legal tender, can meet with ſucceſs, gives us the utmoſt concern, as we flattered ourſelves, that on the humble repreſentation of the late aſſembly, with your Excellency's intereſt at home, which you were pleaſed ſo kindly to offer, and which, we doubt not, has been moſt ſtrenuouſly exerted in favour of the province, we ſhould have obtained the relief ſo neceſſary to the diſtreſſed ſituation and circumſtances of this country.

We are truly ſenſible of the neceſſity of having an Agent in England, duly authorized to act in every caſe, in which the intereſt of this colony may be concerned. This Houſe therefore, will proceed to the appointment of an Agent, in which we hope, to have the concurrence of the other branches of the legiſlature, and will make the neceſſary proviſion for ſupporting ſuch an eſtabliſhment.

The encouragement given by an act of parliament, to the culture of Raw Silk in America, is pleaſing and agreeable to us; and we aſſure your Excellency, that it ſhall meet with ſuch further encouragement (conſiſtent with the true intereſt of this country) as ſo intereſting an object may require.

The making proviſion of Powder and Lead for his Majeſty's ſervice and the defence of this government, at this time, when we are enjoying the bleſſings of peace, permit us, Sir, to ſay, we humbly apprehend, is by no means neceſſary; as every clog or tax whatſoever, upon our trade, muſt of neceſſity, be a diſcouragement to the ſame, and of courſe, have ſuch a tendency as to be prejudicial, rather than advantageous, to the country.

The ſtate of our public funds, at no time, ſince the ſettlement of the colony, has required a more ſtrict examination, than at preſent; and we agree with your Excellency, that a ſettlement of the public accounts ſhould be forthwith obtained, ſo as a general ſtate of them may be made known to the country; and ſhall be extremely obliged to your Excellency, for any obſervations or regulations in the manner of keeping the public accounts, that you ſhall be pleaſed to lay before us, which may tend to render the ſame free from that obſcurity they have hitherto been in.

We ſhall ever eſteem it our indiſpenſible duty to enquire into, and ſee how far the laws for the emiſſion of Paper Currency, have had their effect, and in whoſe hands the ſums raiſed to ſink thoſe emiſſions remain.

The intelligence your Excellency has received from home, and which you are pleaſed to communicate to us, regarding the intention of his Majeſty's preſent Miniſters having no deſign to propoſe to Parliament, to lay any further taxes on America, for the purpoſe of raiſing a revenue, and their propoſing to take off the duties upon glaſs, paper, and colours, is very grateful to us, and will be much more ſo, when we find their deſigns are carried into execution, even upon the conſideration of ſuch duties having been laid contrary to the true principles of commerce; and we rejoice that we are once ſo happy as to have the ſentiments of the Miniſtry in that particular, concide with our own.

We ſympathize with the unfortunate ſufferers in the late ſtorm in general, and with the inhabitants of Newbern in particular: But the calamities, loſſes, and misfortunes, occaſioned thereby, being general, we cannot, conſiſtent with the duty we owe our conſtituents, think of granting them aſſiſtance, in preference to any other part of the province, leſt, by ſo doing, we ſhould ſhew a partiality we would ever endeavour to avoid.

To which Addreſs His Excellency was pleaſed to return the following ANSWER.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Aſſembly,

I THANK you for your congratulations on my return from Virginia to this country. It would have afforded me much ſatisfaction, if the ſupply of ammunition for the country, and the aſſiſtance for the town of Newbern, which I recommended to you in my ſpeech, had been honoured with your approbation.

WILLIAM TRYON.

NEWBERN, November 6.

His EXCELLENCY'S SPEECH to diſſolve the ASSEMBLY.

Gentlemen of his Majeſty's Honourable Council,
Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Aſſembly,

I MET this Aſſembly with a moſt ſincere diſpoſition to forward the public buſineſs of the country: And I make this public acknowledgment of my thanks, to the gentlemen of his Majeſty's Council, for the chearfulneſs they have ſhewn to cooperate with me; and my gratitude to the Houſe of Aſſembly, for the honourable opinion they have declared in favour of my adminiſtration. You may be aſſured, gentlemen, that the interruption which has been given to the buſineſs of this ſeſſion, has not occaſioned more diſappointment to you, than the cauſe of it has occaſioned real affliction to me.

The plan I laid before you for the management of your public funds, if adopted by the legiſlature, and invariably purſued (otherwiſe it will be inſufficient) will produce the happieſt effects to this country; and I will be bold to affirm, if ever carried, in any future ſeſſion, into an act of the legiſlature, it will be acknowledged the moſt beneficial ſeſſion this colony ever experienced, though it ſhould be the only act paſſed in that ſeſſion. But this bleſſing is not to be obtained for the country, while the Treaſurers, late Sheriffs, and other ſureties, can command a majority in the lower Houſe, and while a Treaſurer is ſuffered to abſent himſelf, and with-hold his public accounts from the General Aſſembly, let the pretence of his abſence be ever ſo urgent. This morning I ſaw ſome public accounts of the treaſurer for the ſouthern diſtrict: Thoſe accounts are ſo very irregular, and negligently kept, that the public muſt be abuſed, if an amendment is not made to the mode there purſued; but as I am told, it is a method his predeceſſors followed, no cenſure can lay upon that gentleman.

As my duty precedes every other conſideration, I do now diſſolve this aſſembly, and this aſſembly is accordingly diſſolved.

After which, the late repreſentatives of the people, judging it neceſſary, that ſome meaſures ſhould be taken in their diſtreſſed ſituation, for preſerving the true and eſſential intereſts of the province, reſolved upon a meeting for that very ſalutary purpoſe, and therefore immediately repaired to the Court-Houſe in this town, where, being aſſembled, it was firſt propoſed, for the more decent and regular diſcuſſion of ſuch matters as might be taken into conſideration, that a moderator ſhould be appointed, and JOHN HARVEY, Eſq; late ſpeaker of the houſe of aſſembly, was unanimouſly elected.

The true ſtate of the province being then opened and fully explained, and it being propoſed that a regular aſſociation ſhould be formed, a committee was appointed to prepare the neceſſary and moſt proper regulations for that purpoſe, and they were ordered to make their report to the general meeting the next day, at nine o'clock.

NEWBERN, NOVEMBER 7, 1769.

At a farther meeting, according to adjournment, the committee appointed yeſterday, made their report, which being read, ſeriouſly conſidered, and approved, was ſigned by a great number of the late members of aſſembly then preſent, and is as follows,

WE, his Majeſty's moſt dutiful ſubjects, the late repreſentatives of all the freeholders of the province of North-Carolina, avowing an invincible attachment and unſhaken fidelity to our moſt gracious Sovereign, and proteſting againſt every act that may have the leaſt tendency to diſturb the peace and good order of this government, which we are willing, at the riſque of our lives and fortunes, to maintain and defend; but, at the ſame time, ſenſibly affected with the hardſhips, difficulties and diſcouragements the colonies at preſent labour under, from ſeveral taxes and impoſitions laid on by parliament, for the ſole purpoſe of a revenue, by which our money is taken from us, without our conſent, and applied to the ſupport of new created commiſſioners of cuſtoms, and other place-men: And by other acts of parliament, we are deprived of that invaluable privilege of trial by our peers and the common law, and made ſubject to the arbitrary and oppreſſive proceedings of the civil law, juſtly abhorred by our anceſtors, the freemen of England: And finding, that the moſt dutiful and loyal petitions and remonſtrances from the colonies for redreſs, have been rejected with contempt; and dreading the evils which threaten us and our poſterity, by reducing us from freedom to a ſtate of ſlavery; and in order to ſtimulate our fellow ſubjects, the merchants and manufacturers in Great-Britain, to aid us in this our diſtreſs, and to ſhew our readineſs to join, heartily, with the other colonies, in every legal method which may moſt probably tend to procure a redreſs, which, we believe, will be moſt effectually promoted, by eſtabliſhing oeconomy, encouraging American manufactures in general, and of this province in particular; promoting induſtry, and diſcouraging all manner of luxury and extravagance: We do therefore, moſt earneſtly, recommend this our aſſociation, to the ſerious attention of all gentlemen, merchants, traders, and other inhabitants of this province, not doubting that they will, very readily and cordially accede thereto; we therefore, whoſe names are hereunto ſubſcribed, do ſolemn promiſe and agree, to and with each other, that until the colonies are reſtored to their former freedom, by a repeal of thoſe oppreſſive acts, we will moſt truly adhere to, and abide by the following reſolutions, to wit.

Firſt, It was unanimouſly agreed on and reſolved, this 7th day of November, 1769, that the ſubſcribers, as well by their own example as all other legal ways and means in their power, will promote and encourage induſtry and frugality, and diſcourage all manner of luxury and extravagance; and will alſo encourage and promote the uſe of North American manufactures in general, and thoſe of this province in particular; and ſuch of the ſubſcribers who ſhall or may have any ſuch for ſale, will ſell and diſpoſe of them at the ſame rates as heretofore.

Secondly, That they will not at any time hereafter, directly or indirectly, import or cauſe to be imported, any manner of goods, merchandize or manufactures, which are or ſhall hereafter be taxed by act of parliament for the purpoſe of raiſing a revenue in America, except paper, not exceeding eight ſhillings ſterling per ream, and except ſuch articles only as orders have been already ſent for; nor purchaſe any ſuch after the firſt day of January next, of any perſon whatever, but they will always conſider ſuch taxation, in every reſpect, as an abſolute prohibition; and in all future orders forbid their correſpondents to ſhip them any goods whatever, taxed as aforeſaid, except as is above excepted.

Thirdly, That the ſubſcribers will not hereafter, directly or indirectly, import, or cauſe to be imported from Great-Britain, or any part of Europe, (except ſuch articles of the produce and manufacture of Ireland, as may be immediately and legally brought from thence, and except alſo all ſuch goods as orders have been already ſent for) any of the goods herein after enumerated, to wit, Spirits, wine, cyder, perry, beer, ale, malt, barley, peaſe, beef, pork, fiſh, butter, cheeſe, tallow, candles, oil, fruit, ſugar, pickles, confectionary, pewter, hoes, axes, watches, clocks, tables, chairs, looking-glaſſes, carriages, joiners and cabinet work of all ſorts, upholſtery of all ſorts, trinkets and jewellery, plate and gold, and ſilver ſmiths work of all ſorts, ribbons and millinary of all ſorts, [except ſpices] ſilks of all ſorts, (except ſewing ſilk) cambrick, lawn, muſlin, gauze, (except bolting-cloths) callico, or cotton ſtuffs, of more than two ſhillings per yard, linnens of more than two ſhillings per yard, woollens, worſted ſtuffs of all ſorts, of more than one ſhilling and ſix-pence per yard, broad cloths of all kinds, of more than eight ſhillings per yard, narrow cloths of all kinds, of more than three ſhillings per yard, hats, ſtockings, ſhoes and boots, ſaddles and all manufactures of leather and ſkins, of all kinds, until the late acts of parliament impoſing duties on tea, paper, glaſs, &c. for the purpoſe of raiſing a revenue in America are repealed; and they will not, after the firſt day of January next, purchaſe any of the above enumerated goods of any perſon whatſoever, unleſs the above mentioned acts of parliament are repealed.

Fourthly, That in all orders which any of the ſubſcribers may hereafter ſend to Great-Britain, they ſhall and will expreſsly direct their correſpondents not to ſhip them any of the before enumerated goods, until the above mentioned acts are repealed; and if any goods are ſhipped to them contrary to the tenor of this agreement, they will refuſe to take the ſame, or make themſelves chargeable therewith.

Fifthly, That they will not import any ſlaves, or purchaſe any imported, after the firſt day of January next, until the ſaid acts of parliament are repealed.

Sixthly, That they will not import any wine of any kind whatſoever, or purchaſe the ſame from any perſon whatſoever, after the firſt day of January next, (except ſuch wines as are already ordered) until the act of parliament impoſing duties thereon, are repealed.

Seventhly, For the better preſervation of the breed of ſheep, that they will not kill, or ſuffer to be killed, any lambs that ſhall be yeaned before the firſt day of May, in any year, nor diſpoſe ſuch to any butcher or other perſon, whom they have re expect intends to kill the ſame.

WILLIAMSBURG, November 9.

The ſpeech of his Excellency the Right Hon. Norborne Baron de Botetourt, His Majeſty's Lieutenant-General of the colony and dominion of Virginia, and Vice-Admiral of the ſame, to the General Aſſembly, convened at the Capitol, on Tueſday the 7th of November, 1769:

Gentlemen of the Council,
Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes,

I Have again received the King's command to meet you in general aſſembly for the diſpatch of the public buſineſs of this dominion, and I hope I need not obſerve to you, that this will be beſt done by temper and moderation. I aſſure you that I ſhall obey my royal maſter's commands with the trueſt ſatisfaction, by concurring with you in ſuch meaſures as may beſt promote the happineſs of his Majeſty's ſubjects in Virginia.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes,

The King having been graciouſly pleaſed, at our earneſt deſire, to refer to his board of trade, to reconſider the boundary line betwixt this colony and the Cherokees, which had been agreed to by that board, I am directed to acquaint you, that in conſequence of that reference and reconſideration, a report has been made in favour of a more extended boundary, and that his Majeſty will conſent to the propoſed alteration, upon condition that the colony will make proviſion to defray the expence of the negociation neceſſary for that purpoſe. I have it therefore in command from his Majeſty, to aſk of this houſe of burgeſſes to enable him to carry into immediate and complete execution that very deſirable object. The propoſed alteration, together with a rate of the expence which I am told will neceſſarily attend it, ſhall be immediately laid before you.

I muſt likewiſe beg your attention to many alarming reports which have been received from the frontier counties of this colony. I will lay the whole before you, with a ſtate of every thing which has been done in conſequence of thoſe accounts, and ſhall be ſupremely happy if you can ſuggeſt to me any mode of proceeding, by which the ſacred laws of our country may again recover that free courſe, which can alone give permanence and ſecurity to this reſpectable government.

Gentlemen of the Council,
Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes,

I think myſelf peculiarly fortunate to be able to inform you that, in a letter dated May the 13th, I have been aſſured by the Earl of Hillſborough, that his Majeſty's preſent adminiſtration have at no time entertained a deſign to propoſe to Parliament to lay any farther taxes upon America for the purpoſe of raiſing a revenue, and that it is their intention to propoſe in the next ſeſſion of Parliament to take off the duties upon glaſs, paper, and colours, upon conſideration of ſuch duties having been laid contrary to the true principles of commerce. It may poſſibly be objected that as his Majeſty's preſent miniſters are not immortal, their ſucceſſors may be inclined to attempt to undo what the preſent miniſters ſhall have attempted to perform: To that objection I can give but this anſwer, that it is my firm opinion that the plan I have ſtated to you will certainly take place, and that it will never be departed from; and ſo determined am I for ever to abide by it that I will be content to be declared infamous if I do not, to the laſt hour of my life, at all times, in all places, and upon all occaſions, exert every power with which I either am or ever ſhall be legally inveſted, in order to obtain and maintain for the continent of America, that ſatisfaction which I have been authorized to promiſe this day by the confidential ſervants of our moſt gracious Sovereign, who, to my certain knowledge, rates his honour ſo high, that he would rather part with his crown than preſerve it by deceit.

THE Co-Partnerſhip of the Subſcribers, expiring with the Year, and there being an abſolute Neceſſity for finally cloſing that long Concern, they take this early Method, that none may plead Ignorance, of acquainting all Perſons, without any Exception, indebted to them, that unleſs they diſcharge the ſame by the Firſt of January next, their ſeveral Bonds, Notes, and Accompts, will be lodged in the Hands of an Attorney, to be recovered by Law. All Perſons to whom they are indebted, are deſired to ſend in their Accompts for Payment by that Time.

CARNE & WILSON.

October 18th, 1769.

THE Co-partnerſhip of GODFREY and GADSDEN, having expired with the laſt Year, they deſire all perſons indebted to them, to call and ſettle their reſpective Debts, on or before the firſt Day of JANUARY next; as they are determined, after the Expiration of that Time, to put all Accompts unſettled into the Hands of an Attorney at Law, for the immediate Recovery of them. They will be further obliged to all thoſe, whoſe Bonds have been long ſtanding, to diſcharge them immediately, otherwiſe they will be under the diſagreeable Neceſſity of putting them in Suit.

TO BE SOLD,

A Plantation ſituated on the Neck, between Wallace's Creek, and Stono River, about Half a Mile below Wallace's-Bridge, St. Paul's Pariſh, containing about 500 Acres, good for Corn and Indico; alſo ſome Rice Land, with great Store of Firewood, and convenient for making of Bricks; thereon is a good and convenient Dwelling-Houſe of ſix Rooms, beſides Cloſets, a good Cellar under the Houſe, a Kitchen, Overſeer's Houſe, Barn, Corn-Houſe, with all other Conveniencies.

Any Perſon inclinable to purchaſe, may enquire of Mr. ALEXANDER MICHIE Merchant, in Charles-Town, or on ſaid Plantation, of LACHLAN MACKINTOSH.

CHARLES-TOWN, December 8.

THIS Day the Hon. Commons Houſe of Aſſembly had Leave to adjourn to Tueſday the 9th of January next; and the Houſe is adjourned to that Time accordingly. During their Sitting, a Bill was brought in, and carried through two Readings, "To encourage the making Flax, "Linen, and Thread, in this Province," by granting a Bounty or Premium of Twelve Shillings Proclamation Money on every Hundred Pounds Weight of Flax, and Thirty per Cent. on the Value of all Linens and Threads. A Bill was alſo ordered to be brought in, "For incorporating this "Town."

Before the Adjournment of the Houſe, a Reſolution was entered into, that the Public Treaſurer do advance the Sum of Fifteen Hundred Pounds Sterling, to be paid into the Hands of Mr. Speaker, Mr. Gadſden, Mr. Rutledge, Mr. Parſons, Mr. Ferguſon, Mr. Dart, and Mr. Lynch, to be by them immediately remitted to Great-Britain, for the Support of the juſt and conſtitutional Rights of the People of that Kingdom and America. It is remarkable that, for One Thouſand Pounds, the Vote would have been unanimous; and though it was the fulleſt Houſe ever known, only ſeven were againſt the Fifteen Hundred, and ſome were inclined to give Two Thouſand.—In this Inſtance, as well as in extending the Time for Non-Importation, till all the Revenue-Acts complained of are repealed, it cannot be ſaid we have followed the Example of the Northern Colonies.

Conſiderable Quantities of Goods have arrived here from London and Briſtol, ſince our laſt, which gave ſome Uneaſineſs to the Inhabitants in general, leſt any Perſons ſhould, through Inadvertence or otherwiſe, have acted inconſiſtently with the true Intent and Meaning of the Reſolutions of Non-Importation, entered into the 22d Day of July laſt: But, we have the Pleaſure of acquainting the Public, that it has appeared, to the Committee of Inſpection, not only that thoſe Goods (except a few Articles, which are to be ſtored or re-ſhipped) were bought before it could with Certainty be known in England, that ſuch Reſolutions had been actually ſigned, and moſt of them ſhipped before countermanding Orders could arrive; but alſo, much to the Credit of ſome Gentlemen in Trade, that they had been ſo early and explicit in their countermanding Orders, as that great Quantities of other Goods have thereby been prevented being ſhipped.

A Stranger has brought a conſiderable Quantity of Goods from Liverpoole, in the Brigantine Providence's Succeſs, Captain Parker; but he will be under a Neceſſity of diſpoſing of them elſewhere, or returning with them.

It is certain, that the People of George-Town refuſed to purchaſe from, or have any Dealings with, a Rhode-Iſland-man that arrived there laſt Week, upon the Suppoſition that the Inhabitants of that Colony had not united, with the Reſt of America, in the Meaſure of Non-Importation; in Conſequence of which the Veſſel left that Port and came to this.

We hear, that Sir William Draper, Knt. General Murray, and General Hudſon, are Candidates for American Governments; and that one of them may probably ſucceed Sir Francis Bernard, Bart. of Nettleham, in that of Maſſachuſetts-Bay.

It is ſtrongly ſuſpected, by many, that there are Merchants in Great-Britain, ſo much under m———l Influence, that they will endeavour to prevent the intended Effect of American Reſolutions of Non-Importation, by ſending over their Factors with Cargoes, to different Colonies, though ſure that they will be ſtored (perhaps on a Promiſe of Indemnification, in Caſe of Loſs) in Order to prevent the Clamours of the People at Home; for, if the Goods are RECEIVED in America, no Matter whether they are ſold or not, the Manufacturer and Tradeſman will be employed, and ſatisfied; whereas it is from the Loſs of Buſineſs theſe will FEEL, that we muſt originally look for a Redreſs of our Grievances.
